CALL FOR VOLUNTEER SUPPORT PERSON APPLICATIONS

Barefoot Fishing Expeditions

Barefoot Fishing Expeditions invites applications from suitable individuals who are passionate about fishing, the outdoors, and hands-on expedition support to apply for a Voluntary Support Person role.

This opportunity is ideal for someone who enjoys being actively involved in fishing expeditions and understands the value of teamwork, discipline, and ethical fish care. The role is voluntary in nature and requires commitment, reliability, and a willingness to work outdoors under varying conditions.

The successful applicant will assist with all aspects of fishing expeditions, including equipment setup and breakdown, netting and weighing of fish, recording and documentation, fish care and catch-and-release practices, and general expedition support duties.

Applicants must have their own fishing equipment, be physically fit and mobile, willing to carry their own costs, and be available during weekdays and weekends, including the possibility of spending several days away from home. A cell phone with WhatsApp and camera functionality is essential for recording purposes.

Interested individuals are invited to complete the attached Application Form and submit it together with a CV for consideration to Herman Bouwer.

- WhatsApp: +27 82 739 6537
- Email: herman.777th@gmail.com

Only applicants who meet the requirements will be contacted.

Tight lines,

Herman Bouwer
